Outside of official meetings, a majority of the members of the Board of Trustees shall not communicate among themselves by the use of any form of communication (e.g. personal intermediaries, e-mail, or other technological devices) in order to reach a collective concurrence regarding any item that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the board, nor shall they conduct a series of meetings with intent to develop a collective concurrence.