Fair Use

The “fair use” doctrine permits limited use of copyrighted materials without obtaining permission from the copyright owner in certain situations, including teaching and scholarship. Fair use is determined using a broad criteria identified in Section 107 of the Copyright Act of 1976. The Technology, Education, and Copyright Harmonization Act (“TEACH Act”) allows an online instructor to use material in the same ways material can be used in live classrooms and gives additional guidance for online teaching. Consideration of all four of the factors below is required before proceeding with use in any teaching situation, though all factors do not have to be in favor of use.
