

MiraCosta College shall offer an adult high school diploma, a noncredit certificate of competency, and a noncredit certificate of completion. Noncredit educational programs leading to a certificate shall be approved by the college curriculum committee and the district board of trustees. Program and graduation requirements shall be published in the college catalog and in other resources that are convenient for students.

The high school diploma may be awarded to students who have completed 160 credits, with at least 20 credits in residence, or 6 college credit units at MiraCosta College.
