

after two consecutive semesters subject to

- A. A student enrolled in the subsequent summer intersession can continue on academic and/or progress notice without submitting an appeal for the summer only.
- B. A student enrolled in the subsequent fall semester has the right to appeal by petitioning to the Committee on Exceptions. Provided the petition is approved, the student will be permitted to continue on academic and/or progress notice for the fall semester; otherwise the student will be removed from classes for the fall.

A student who has been separated for academic and/or progress reasons may be reinstated when the student (1) does not attend for one primary semester (fall/spring) and (2) consults with a counselor to determine whether the reasons that led to the academic and/or progress separation are addressed to enable improved performance.

Students who believe they should be reinstated after being being (e )T0 T(s)4 )-10 (w)16(ho 28TjEMC .

incompletes (I), or no-pass (NP) grades is less than fifty (50) percent for all MiraCosta College courses combined.

B. Students who lose Veterans Affairs educational benefits may appeal the to the Veterans Education Benefits Disqualification Committee and seek restoration of eligibility for benefits for any of the following reasons:

1. The immediately preceding semester, the students' grade-point average has improved significantly.
2. Documented extenuating circumstances beyond the control of the student.
3. The combined grade-point average from MiraCosta College and other regionally accredited institutions of higher education for coursework completed after the loss of benefits meets or exceeds district academic standards.