

The superintendent/president shall establish procedures that regulate the solicitation of student credit cards on campus and other promotional activities that could put students into debt.

See Administrative Procedure 5570.