

In order to keep the board of trustees current on the fiscal condition of the district and as an integral part of the policy and decision-making processes, the vice president, a