

Applicants for positions may be subject to background or reference checks.

Where a background investigation is performed by a third party, the human resources vice president or their designee shall make a clear and conspicuous disclosure to the applicant on a separate form before the report is procured. The applicant shall be provided an option to receive or not receive the report. If the applicant is not hired, or the district takes other action that adversely affects any applicant based in whole or in part upon the third-party report, human resources recruiter shall provide oral, written, or electronic notice of:

- x the adverse action to the applicant;
- x the name, address, and telephone number of the third-party agency that furnished the report;
- x the applicant's right to obtain a free copy of the report; and The Live Scan System (digitally scanned fingerprints) is the quickest way to submit and process background checks. The California DOJ will report on conviction results in the state of California and will automatically report all past criminal convictions in a separate report under contract or law.

When an offer of employment is made, the Human Resources Department shall inform the candidate that it is conditional upon successful completion of a background check.

Child Development Center

The California Health and Safety Code requires a background check for all employees, and volunteers (under certain conditions) who have direct contact with clients. If the California Department of Social Services has been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation, the individual shall not be present in any community-care facility unless they are licensed by the Community Care Licensing Division, Caregiver Background Check. All applicants are required to undergo the Child Abuse and Neglect (CAN) check.

When an individual receives a criminal-record clearance, they may work or volunteer in a licensed facility.

Nursing Faculty

Background checks are required by facilities that place nursing faculty in clinical work, and thus are completed at the time of hire.
