

To load the VMware Horizon View client on a PC

1. Make sure you have an internet connection
2. From any browser type in <https://view.miracosta.edu>
3. Look for O

To load the VMware Horizon View client on a MAC

1. Make sure you have an internet connection
2. Open any browser and navigate to: <https://view.miracosta.edu>
3. Look for Omnissa Horizon Clients and Click on View Download Components
4. Click the Go to Downloads button for VMware View Client for MAC
5. Click the Download button
6. Depending on your browser, either open the file or navigate to your downloads folder
7. Drag the VMware Horizon Client applications to the Applications folder
 - a. If necessary, you may need to provide your MAC's username and password
8. After installation, launch the VMware View Client program
 - a. If necessary, click open on the popup that states the program was installed from the internet.
 - b. If necessary, click continue to start remote USB Services for VMware
 - c. If necessary, you may have to enter your MAC's username and password again
- 9.